Exploring the peninsula

Convict heritage

The Convict Trail tourist drive begins at Eaglehawk Neck. Follow the yellow convict broad-arrow roadside markers. Allow a full day to visit all sites, including the Eaglehawk Neck Officers Quarters Museum and convict dogline, Coal Mines Historic Site, and the probation stations at Norfolk Bay, Cascades (Koonya), Impression Bay (Premaydena), Wedge Bay (Nubeena) and Saltwater River; and another day to visit Port Arthur Historic Site.

Geological features

The peninsula is well-known for its extraordinary geology, of international significance. Features include Australia's highest sea cliffs, Tessellated Pavement, Tasman Blowhole, Tasman Arch, Devils Kitchen, Remarkable Cave and Maingon Blowhole.

Tours

Enjoy an unforgettable boat cruise along the spectacular sea cliffs on the east coast, from Eaglehawk Neck to Tasman Island. There is also a wildlife park at Taranna, which specialises in Tasmanian Devils.

Picnicking

Eaglehawk Neck, Fortescue Bay, Stewarts Bay, Coal Mines Historic Site and Port Arthur Historic Site.

Swimming

Safe beaches in calm weather include Eaglehawk Neck, Fortescue Bay, Stewarts Bay, White Beach and Lime Bay.

Surfing

Good surf breaks can usually be found as the peninsula receives swell from every direction. Reliable locations include Eaglehawk Neck and Roaring Beach. Beaches are not patrolled. Get local knowledge on the best surf beaches for your skill level. Surf Schools runs at certain times of the year. With the right swell, the waves at Shipstern Bluff are impressive to watch.

Fishing

The East Coast is particularly renowned for crayfish and tuna, with charter boats operating out of Eaglehawk Neck and Nubeena. The sheltered bays of Norfolk Bay and Fortescue Bay provide good catches of flounder, flathead and other species. Recreational fishers need to be aware of size and bag limits and seasonal fishing licences. (Refer to the Recreational Sea Fishing Guide; download the Tas Fish Guide app).

Sea kayaking

If sea kayaking independently, you must be experienced and well-equipped. Sea conditions can change rapidly and there are few places to land. Sea kayaking companies run tours.

Rock climbing/abseiling

Cape Hauy is popular with very experienced climbers.

Scuba diving

Fortescue Bay, Pirates Bay, Port Arthur and White Beach. Dive companies operate out of Eaglehawk Neck.

Golfing

Port Arthur Golf Course, looking across to the Port Arthur Historic Site.
